UF’s Tropical Aquaculture Lab and the Department of Agricultural and Biological Engineering have partnered with FDACS Office of Energy and TECO to examine ways of reducing operating costs on aquaculture farms. The initial stages of that project and the new Florida Energy Technology Cost Share Program – Efficiency and Renewable Improvements in Commercial Aquaculture (ERICA) will be discussed. Please make time to join us and learn about this opportunity.

http://tal.ifas.ufl.edu  www.facebook.com/UFIFASTAL

For more information contact:

Eric Cassiano
772-480-7401
ericcass@ufl.edu

Jordan Neff
Jneff1@ufl.edu